

NECROLOGICAL.

DEATH OF MRS. ODELIA FRANELICH.

After a lingering illness Mrs. Odelia Franelich, relict of Thomas Franelich, passed away at her home, No. 200 Beauregard street, last night. Deceased was born in Norwich, Conn., January 10, 1836, daughter of the late Conrad and Lucy Weinheimer and came with her parents to Mobile when a child and had resided in Mobile almost continuously since until her demise. She was a consistent member of St. Patrick's church, and will be buried from the church this afternoon. Three sons, Messrs. Edward J. and Nick. Franelich of Mobile, and Mr. Henry T. Franelich of Selma, and three daughters, Mesdames William Roach, J. E. Webster and W. H. Burlison of this city, with seven grandchildren survive and mourn the death of this most estimable lady.

MRS. ODELIA FRANELICH.

Mrs. Odelia Franelich died at her home in this city yesterday, after a long illness. She was born in Norwich, Conn., in 1836 and was a resident of this city for the past 60 years. She was the relict of Thomas Franelich, and leaves three sons, E. J. and N. G., of this city and H. T., of Selma, Ala.; and three daughters, Mrs. William Roach, Mrs. J. B. Webster, and Mrs. W. H. Burlison, of this city.

She has been a devout member of St. Patrick's church ever since that church was built, and leaves many friends to mourn her demise.