

FLORIDA APPEAL WINS

More Than 2,000 Visitors Come To Miami and Other East Coast Cities Aboard Special Trains Operated In Conjunction With Regular Carriers; Many Would Establish Homes Here.

Continued From Page 6

In a wonderful country," commented Judge MacBride of Ohio State University, Columbus, who came for a several weeks' visit with James Donald Fitzpatrick of the LaCorona apartments, Miami Beach.

"I AM in love with Florida and her splendid laws, climate and people," said Dr. Atwood Smith, who came from Louisville, Ky., to Deerfield Beach. He said that he would stay in Florida nine or 10 months "and perhaps the whole year."

Dr. Ralph Gowdy, prominent Miami physician and surgeon, returned from Alexandria and Rochester, Minn., where he attended the Mayo clinic. He resides at 598 N. E. Fifty-seventh street. J. S. Stoneman, hardware merchant of Cleveland, Ohio, will be the guest of Joseph E. Miller at Lake Worth for two weeks. Karl M. Nebel of the Union Indemnity Company of New Orleans came to Miami on a business mission.

Mrs. B. Machor and Mrs. J. Rees came from Cleveland to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bacher and Lillian Rees at 1553 S. W. First street. Mrs. A. T. Truklar of Cleveland accompanied them.

D. F. Owen, produce dealer of Cleveland, will spend two weeks in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Taylor, and H. R. Harrison of the Motor Travel Bureau, Minneapolis, will spend a few days here on business. He will be a guest at the Dolphin Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cole of St. Louis will spend two weeks in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Murner, 914 S. W. Tenth avenue. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bickel of Louisville, Ky., took advantage of the opportunity and stopped over in Miami while on the way to Cuba, where they will spend two weeks in the city as is superintendent of the Hillrich & Bradley Company of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Locke and daughter of St. Louis came to join their son, Brewster Locke, who has been visiting here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, 638 S. W. Sixth street. They will return to their home in a week or 10 days, but Brewster Locke will return to Miami to spend the winter.

Milo Willett came from Dayton, Ohio, to stay indefinitely as the guest of Ray Willett of 1528 N. W. Third street.

Sam L. Cline, prominent lawyer of Atlanta, who was president of the Georgia state senate for four years, until 1920, was among several hundred people who came to Miami aboard the first section of the Everglades Limited at 8 o'clock last night. This is his first trip to Miami. He said he was disappointed because he could not spend more than two days, as business requires his early return home. W. H. Burwell and Robert Shipp, prominent Miami attorneys, served with Mr. Cline in the Georgia legislature, Mr. Cline said.

H. J. Gardner of St. Louis also was a passenger on the first section of the Everglades Limited. He will spend 10 days visiting in Miami and Hollywood. Miss Marie Wright of Macon, Ga., who spent last summer in Miami, returned to the city last night. She will be the guest of Mrs. W. R. Jones, 105 N. W. Thirty-first street, for two weeks. M. B. Lamb, a deputy sheriff of Columbus, Ga., arrived for a two days' stay.

Miss Ethel Cashenell of N. E. Twenty-fifth street returned from a vacation spent at Atlanta. Mrs. H. Brooker of Petersburg, W. Va., came to Miami for a few days' visit before going to Homestead, where she will spend the winter.

"THERE'S no place like Miami for the glorious moonlight nights," said Miss Sadie Goldberg who returned from New York City determined to make her home here. For a few weeks she will reside at 1554 N. W. Third street. Mrs. John C. Wise returned to her home at Fort Lauderdale after spending a long vacation in North Carolina, as the guest of her mother. M. J. Pratt, city passenger agent of the L. & N. railroad returned from Atlanta, where he had been called on business.

C. H. Nanz, a patent attorney of Chicago, will spend two weeks as the guest of R. W. Nanz of 236 N. E. Twenty-eighth street. He spent three months here during the winter of 1924. B. W. Lundberg, painter and decorator, came from Chicago to do a week's work for a client. Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Elgin came from Madisonville, Ky., to establish their home at Fort Lauderdale. Miss Irene McDonnell and Miss Ethel McDonnell, both of Chicago, will spend 10 days as guests at the Dania Beach hotel.

Edward C. Kraemer, real estate dealer of Milwaukee, came to Miami in the interests of apartment building. He expects to remain a week.

"I may be here forever," commented Mrs. Fred Butler, who came from Chicago to spend the winter. She will reside at Little River. "You can't beat it," she said. "This is a great place to live."

Mrs. Sara V. Bayard of Indianapolis will make an extended visit with her daughter, Irene, who resides at Miami Beach. This is her first trip to Florida. John Reiner of 24 S. W. Eighteenth court returned from Excelsior Springs, Mo., where he spent three months' vacation. Joseph A. Hehn came from Detroit to make an indefinite visit as the guest of J. P. Warren. Mrs. R. K. Thompson and Mrs. H. H. Splawn of Memphis will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Wade of S. W. Fifth street for two weeks. It is their first trip to Miami. Mrs. C. F. Livingston returned from Des Moines, Iowa, where she served as delegate for the J. J. Pershing auxiliary at the twenty-eighth national convention of the United Spanish War Veterans.

W. H. Nichols, Miami real estate dealer, returned from his vacation spent at Chicago, and expressed his enthusiasm over the way Miami and Miami Beach are prepared to greet the visitors this year. He was pleased, especially, by the stabilized rates announced by hotels and apartment houses. "That is the first question asked a Floridian in the North," he said. "They want to know if they will be treated fairly if they come to Miami and they do not want to be gouged by the owners of hotels or apartment houses." Mr. Nichols has been a resident of Miami for 16 years.

Charles J. Dougherty, a Birmingham attorney, will remain here indefinitely, and for the next few weeks he will be a guest at the George Washington Hotel, Miami Beach. He is building a house at the corner of Forty-second street and Oulmet avenue, Miami Beach, and when it is finished his family will join him here for permanent residence.

Mrs. John Perrels of Chicago will spend a short vacation at 157 S. W. Sixty-seventh avenue.

M. P. French, dry goods merchant, said he came from Chicago to escape the heat. "It's terrible back there," he said. He will join Mrs. French for a short vacation to be spent at Coral Gables.

S. M. Drake, real estate dealer, came from West Palm Beach to establish his home here. Mrs. Harold F. Ferris returned to her home in Homestead after spending a two months' vacation in New York state.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Franellch came from Mobile and will make their future home here. Mr. Franellch will be employed by the Texas Oil Company. "Florida is a lovely country and I am sure we will be pleased to live in Miami," Mrs. Franellch said. For the present they will be the guests of J. H. Butt.

George N. Smatrldge, who termed himself "an old timer," returned to his home at 153 N. E. Twenty-second street after spending a vacation in his old home town in Canada, and in the Thousand Islands. He is a builder.

"THIS trip is business and pleasure combined for me," said Mrs. N. H. Walkley, school cafeteria manager at Chattanooga. "I was here last July and I think Miami is great. Just think how it has grown in two years." Mrs. Walkley will be the guest of Mrs. C. A. Shinn of the Potter apartments, 1504 N. E. First street, for 10 days. Miss Gladys Scherr of St. Louis will make an indefinite stay here. "I like the breezes and the climate," she said.

J. Edward Buck, manager of the Country club at Memphis, will be a guest at the Hotel Cortez during the week or 10 days he will spend in Miami. "I am going to look Miami and Florida over for the first time," he said.

Miss Ellen E. Olson of Chicago will spend 10 days here as the guest of Mrs. Robert Jeffcott of 215 N. E. Twenty-fourth street. "This is my first trip, and I think Miami is lovely," she said.

J. M. Krebs, a banker of Carlisle, Ill., was called to Jacksonville on a business mission and he couldn't resist the temptation to come to Miami. He will spend only a few days here.

Mrs. W. C. Ewing of Jayshepspur, British India, will be a guest at the McBride Hotel for several weeks. Mrs. J. A. Patton and Miss Katharine Patton came from Gary, Ind., and will be guests at the McBride Hotel during their indefinite stay here. Isidor Cohn, importer of cigars at Chicago and the owner of considerable land near Homestead, will spend two weeks in the Miami district. He will be the guest of A. B. Cromer of 2534 S. W. Sixth street.

W. V. Parks, a realtor, returned to his Shadowlawn home after spending a month's vacation in Georgia and North Carolina. Thomas S. Davenport of Davenport & Rich, realtors, returned from New York City and Philadelphia, where he was called on business. "There's lots of people coming to Miami," he said.

Mrs. H. Wulff of St. Louis is on her first trip to Miami and she will be the guest of Mrs. E. Farrar.

W. C. Cox, construction engineer of the H. H. Robinson Company of Birmingham, Ala., was a new arrival in Miami. His stay will be indefinite.

O. H. Jeter of the Southern Grocers, Hampton, Ga., expressed pleasurable anticipation of a visit in Miami. He said this was his first trip and he did not know how long he would remain, although from all he had heard of the city, it would be over a long period.

Mrs. Hattie Humphries of Hopkinsville, Ky., came to Miami to join her niece, Miss Daisy Aldredge, who has been here for more than a year. Mrs. Humphries said that she had been persuaded to make Miami her permanent home by the urgent recommendations of her relative.

RESIDENTS of Atlanta, Ga., and cities in Alabama arrived 300-strong on the second section of the Everglades Limited, special excursion train, at 10:30 o'clock last night. Friends and relatives who had waited all day, expecting their particular parties on every section during the day, greeted the visitors at the Florida East Coast railway station last night. Among the arrivals on the last train were:

I. B. Bleich, Atlanta real estate dealer, who will spend two weeks at the McAllister Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Morris and son, Maxwell, of Kansas City, Mo., will be the guests for 10 days of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Morris. Mr. Morris is manager of the W. T. Farley clothing store.

Mrs. F. V. Hall of Atlanta arrived for a vacation of one week in Miami. She is at the Columbus Hotel.

Mrs. Louise Boyd Lare of Atlanta is at the Columbus Hotel. She plans to make her future home in Miami.

Mrs. H. L. Kimbrell and son, Homer, of Atlanta, are on a pleasure trip to Miami and the Miami district. While here they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mercer, 1453 N. W. Ninth avenue. Mrs. Kimbrell formerly lived in Miami.

O. R. Altman, credit manager for James K. Polk, Inc., large phonograph manufacturing company in Atlanta, will spend a few days in Miami, combining business with pleasure.

Mrs. H. L. Screllin and nephew, John Lohe of 420 N. W. Thirtieth street returned from a vacation in St. Louis, Mo.

F. E. Dix, Coral Gables insurance man, returned from an extended business trip to Detroit and Indianapolis.

Mrs. Fred Beamer and Mrs. A. S. Allen of Atlanta will spend a few days at the Miami Biltmore Hotel before a trip to Cuba.

Mrs. Emma Thompson of Independence, Mo., will be the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. Peterson. While here Mrs. Thompson will attend the wedding of her daughter, Thelma, and Thomas J. Peters September 3. Mrs. Thompson first visited Florida six years ago.

Mrs. Ida Jackson of Joplin, Mo., will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Surilis, 1036 S. W. Seventh street.

Miss Daisy D. Million of Kansas City, Mo., will visit for three weeks with Mr. and Mrs. John Effason, 161 N. E. Twenty-third street. Before returning to her home Miss Million plans to visit in Havana, Cuba.

Miss Nelle Greene of Atlanta will be the guest for a week of Miss Florence and Miss June Greene at the Miami Y. W. C. A.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Webb of Waycross, Ga., arrived for a visit with their son, H. C. Webb, 2828 N. W. Nineteenth avenue.

Miss Ruth Johnson of Atlanta will be the guest of Mrs. L. E. Peterson, 340 S. W. Seventh avenue. Mrs. Peterson returned on the excursion from a visit with her father, J. M. Johnson, in Atlanta.

MISS ODESSA GIBSON of Kansas City, Mo., will spend two weeks at the home of Mrs. M. D. Malken, 4038 N. W. Twenty-fifth avenue. Miss Gibson is proud of her native city, "the heart of America," but upon her arrival in Miami, declared she always would be a Miami booster.

Jesse Clifford Moore, clerk in the Atlanta post office, arrived for a 10 days' visit with Mrs. W. O. Elliott, 2307 S. W. Twenty-second street.

Mrs. J. S. Field of Miami Beach returned from a three weeks' vacation in Hendersonville, N. C. Mrs. Field also visited her sons who are in training at Camp Stanton.

Mrs. N. R. Farlow and son of Indianapolis will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles McFartridge in Little River.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Millican and daughter came for a two weeks' visit in Miami. They are from Atlanta, Ga., where Mr. Millican is connected with the Gulf Refining Company,